

Learning Ladders Primary School Summer Camp 2023

Once upon a time there was Summer! Join us this summer for Operation Animation, as we go below the surface of our favorite animated movies. We will explore the fascinating locations that these stories take place in, such as Hawaii, Scotland, and Brazil. What makes a good friend? What does it mean to be honest? We will answer these questions and look at other important themes while having fun and enjoying our summer. Each session includes a STEM project + a field trip.

Session 1: LETS TRAVEL (3 weeks): June 26 - July 14 (Closed Independence Day)

How's the weather in Mexico? What is Carnivale in Brazil? How long is a flight to China? These are some of the questions we will answer as we take a trip around the world discovering the locations of animated favorites.

Discussion Themes: Culture, Travel, Cuisine, Diversity

Enrichment: Sports, Music and Movement, Creative Arts, Science

Session 2: LESSONS LEARNED (3 weeks): July 17 – August 4

You've got a friend in me! Here we will examine the major lessons and values that appear across some animated tales. The importance of family, friendship, respecting differences and more will be examined.

Discussion Themes: Morals, Values, Respect for Others, Diversity

Enrichment: Sports, Music and Movement, Creative Arts, Science

Session 3: I BELIEVE IN ME (3 weeks): August 7 – August 25

What does it mean to be brave? Campers will learn that anything is possible when you believe in yourself as we delve into how our characters like Merida, Rapunzel and Hercules overcame adversity by simply believing in themselves.

Discussion Themes: Self Awareness, Self Esteem, Open mindedness

Enrichment: Sports, Music and Movement, Creative Arts, Science
